

Computing Research Association Lab and Center Dues Invoice

Thank you for your interest in membership in the Computing Research Association. Please mail the second page of this form and your payment to CRA at the address below.

Membership Categories:

Annual Sponsoring, Sustaining, and Supporting lab and center memberships are available for firms whose leadership is critically dependent on computing research. Members in these three categories receive special acknowledgement in CRA publications as well as sponsorship benefits at CRA's biennial Conference at Snowbird.

Sponsoring Member	$50,000
Sustaining Member	$30,000
Supporting Member	$20,000

The suggested dues rates for labs that do not wish to join at these higher levels are:

Research Funding		Number of Researchers	Dues Level
≥ $5 million	and	≥ 50	$14,200
≥ $2.5 million	and	≥ 25	$7,100
≥ $1.25 million	and	≥ 10	$3,550
Else			$1,775

Research Funding:

This is the total external amount spent on research and includes direct costs and overhead. Education-oriented funds such as doctoral fellowships and equipment for universities are excluded. Expenditures and indirect costs from government and lab and center research grants are included. Do not include expenditures for external research. Calculate your research expenditure by using whatever method is accepted by your organization. Use the most recent 12-month period for which data are readily available or can be estimated.

Who should be counted as a Researcher?

Count	Do not Count
• People doing computing research as one of their significant duties	• Secretaries
• Line administrators (department heads and project leaders)	• Business Managers
• Researchers supported by internal funds	• Facility Managers
• Researchers supported by research grants/contracts	• Other administrative support staff

Additional Opportunities to Support CRA:

Companies may choose to support the association in other ways beyond paying dues. Companies may make unrestricted donations or support specific project. Please contact CRA for more information.
